WELCOME TO LEGO® ART. READY TO DIVE IN?

Andy Warhol

Andy Warhol by Andrew Warhola

The man who once quipped he "came from nowhere" was born Andrew Warhola in 1928. Raised in Pittsburgh, PA, he became a successful commercial illustrator in 1950's

Manhattan. From there he would go on to shock the art world, cross over into mainstream celebrity, and democratise art with his wildly accessible work drawing from mass culture, everyday objects and the seemingly mundane.

By choosing to be at once enigmatic and overexposed – Truman Capote once described him as "a sphinx without a secret" – Andrew Warhola turned the Andy Warhol persona into his greatest creation.

Warhol at Work

A true multimedia artist, during his four-decade tenure Warhol created paintings, drawings, sculptures, fashion designs, photographs and up to 610 'time capsules' filled with objects from his daily life. Obsessed with applying industrial-style production methods to art, Warhol perfected the silkscreen printing technique in his New York studio, which he named 'The Factory.'

Art is what you can get away with

Andy Warhol

The Factory was more than an art studio.
It was a hangout for bohemians, free-thinkers and socialites, known as the Warhol Superstars.

Warhol's iconic celebrity portraits are some of his most recognisable pieces, but his subject matter stretched well beyond the human form.

About the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Inc.

Since its founding in 1987, in accordance with Warhol's will, The Andy Warhol Foundation has established itself among the leading funders of contemporary art in the United States. The Foundation has distributed over USD 200,000,000 in cash grants which support the creation, presentation and documentation of contemporary visual arts, particularly work that is experimental, under-recognised or challenging in nature. Proceeds the Foundation receives from licensing projects such as this contribute to the Foundation's endowment from which these grants are distributed.

Marilyn Monroe (Marilyn), 1967

Warhol based his colourful portraits of Marilyn on a black and white publicity photograph of the actress from her 1953 film Niagara. In true form, he'd sell them for as little as USD 250.
