MEET THE FAN DESIGNER

Fuma Terai (LEGO® Ideas name Terauma) is a graphic designer and soft vinyl figure artist from Tokyo, Japan. With his Gizmo submission to the If We Could Turn Back Time Challenge on the LEGO Ideas platform, he struck the perfect balance between 1980s movie nostalgia and LEGO building fun:

"Ever since I got my first used LEGO bricks at three years old, it's been a fun hobby for me, and I enjoy both building and displaying sets and meeting with other LEGO fans. It satisfies my imagination and improves my understanding of colour and creativity. I love LEGO colours that make me feel the excitement of my childhood again, like the LEGO Castle and Space themes from the 80s and 90s. For this challenge, the theme was straightforward. Gremlins (1984) is a movie I watched with my family when I was little,

and it's still one of my favourite movies. I love Gizmo! I wanted to make sure my model captured his rounded body and fluffy fur, so I used curved and textured parts. I love that it can be moved to create different poses. I was very surprised when I found out that it would be turned into an official set! It's a dream come true. I want to tell my childhood self about this! Thanks to everyone who supported the idea! And if you dream of becoming a LEGO designer - do it! Build what you love. And challenge yourself again and again!"

Fan designer Fuma Teraï with his original model of Gizmo

"THERE ARE THREE RULES..."

NOBODY'S GOT A STORY LIKE THIS ONE

Few movie creatures are as beloved and universally recognisable as Gizmo, the adorable little Mogwai from Gremlins (1984). Members of this mysterious species replicate when they get wet, mutate into gremlins when they eat after midnight and are critically vulnerable to sunlight. Not the easiest 'pet' to keep in a busy family! But Gizmo's big eyes and tiny paws, paired with his innocence, resourcefulness and charming mischief made him an instant icon of 1980s cinema.

There may be a gremlin in your house

With Mogwai comes great responsibility, but compared to the movie character, your LEGO® Gizmo requires a little less maintenance. And hopefully, he still gives you all the feels! During your building process (in bag number 4), you can choose between two different cute poses for your Gizmo. He can stand up or sit down, whichever makes him feel comfortable in your home. If you change your mind later, you can always go back and rebuild.

FROM THE LEGO® IDEAS DESIGN TEAM

One of the more challenging aspects was designing the options for standing and sitting poses, as well as creating a range of articulation options that really reflect Gizmo's cute personality. His arms and fingers are posable, and the wrists pivot inwards. His head rotates left and right, his ears can be raised and lowered, and if you build him standing, his legs can be rotated slightly. Plus, no LEGO® Ideas set is complete without a few surprises! A 1x1 pink pyramid element built into Gizmo's chest (where we imagine his heart would be) is in honour of Fuma's daughter, who loves transparent LEGO elements. We also included brick-built 3D glasses and a 'splash' of water you can attach to the back of the model.

And now, we believe you are ready.
